City of Torrance Hosts its 30th Annual Old Fashioned 4th of July Celebration

Torrance, Calif., June 25, 2010 – The City of Torrance Community Services Department invites you, your family and friends, to come out and celebrate at the Torrance 30TH Annual Old Fashioned 4th of July Celebration . The Celebration will be held from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Sunday, July 4, at Charles H. Wilson Park located at 2200 Crenshaw Boulevard in Torrance.

The City of Torrance's Old Fashioned 4th of July Celebration will offer great entertainment, games, train rides, food, arts and crafts booths with items for sale, and of course, a spectacular aerial fireworks display set to music beginning at 9 p.m.

Free public parking and roundtrip shuttle transportation will be available to and from the park from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. at the Del Amo Fashion Center (behind JC Penny's) and the Torrance Civic Center located at 3031 Torrance Boulevard. Limited on-site parking will also be available for $10 for Torrance residents and $15 for non-residents (a valid Drivers License must be presented to receive the resident rate and additional fees will be charged for oversized vehicles that take up more than one parking space).

For more information about this event, please contact the Community Services Department, (310) 618-2930 or visit www.Recreation.TorranceCA.Gov.
