CITY OF TORRANCE BREAKS GROUND FOR NEW CENTENNIAL PLAZA

Torrance, Calif., June 19, 2012 – On Tuesday, June 19, 2012, The City of Torrance broke ground on its new Centennial Plaza at El Prado Park. The Plaza is set to unveil this September. The design of the Centennial Plaza features personalized, commemorative bricks that were purchased by the community. The site will also be home to a time capsule that reflects life in Torrance during its centennial year. The time capsule will be buried prior to the Centennial Plaza unveiling and is set to be reopened during its bicentennial year, 2112.

The ceremony began with a welcome from the Mayor, Frank Scotto followed by remarks from Centennial Chair, Dr. Laurie Love who ended her remarks by saying, “[...] the Centennial Plaza will be one of great promise with its incorporating themes of history, community, and innovation that characterize and inspire the balanced City of Torrance.”

The groundbreaking ceremony will be available to view on the City’s YouTube Channel at: www.YouTube.com/TorranceCitiCABLE.
