Pt. II Building Blocks of Art

In September 2015, we only got to the halfway point of this lecture so let us finish it!

Learn the language of describing and interpreting art, also referred to as the "Form and Content" approach to viewing art. It's the backbone to analyzing art. It is also the fundamentals that all artists must learn to produce art. So whether you are a lover of art, a creator of art or both, this lecture is for you.
