Get ready for a hilarious love letter to community theatre! Rick Abbot's PLAY ON! tells the story of a mildly dysfunctional community theatre that is about to produce a show called Murder Most Foul, a new "murder mystery play" with the same title as an Agatha Christie novel, which has apparently escaped the author. The company forgives a lot since the inexperienced playwright has agreed to let them perform the show for no charge; but no one could have predicted the hilarious disasters that await them on the road to Opening Night.

"It got funnier and funnier... to the point of delirium."

— James Scarborough, What the Butler Saw
