7D. TORRANCE CULTURAL ARTS CENTER MEETING ROOM GRANT PROGRAM

Senior Business Manager Rumery provided background on the Meeting Room Grant Program to assist Torrance-based nonprofit organizations with the rental of Cultural Arts Center facilities. He recommended the Commission consider adding Torrance organizations to the Grant Program for FY 2019-2020 and called attention to the chart showing requested dates and funds. He stated there is currently $11,966.62 for disbursement; however, the requested funding exceeds the available budgeted funds by $1,571.38. He suggested possible options for the Commission to consider: 1) Not funding one or more of the requested events; 2) Allocating only part of the requested funding to one or more events; or 3) Allocate partial funding to all events at a reduction of 12% from requested amounts.

In response to Chairperson Kraemer's inquiry, Senior Business Manager Rumery advised that all groups utilizing the Cultural Meeting Rooms are tracked to ensure they are viable nonprofit organizations.

Commissioner Muhammed stated he needed to recuse himself from consideration of the Arts Council of Torrance because he serves as Treasurer of the Board.

Steve Norris, Arts Council of Torrance, requested a subsidy of $836 for the Toyota Meeting Hall on August 17 for a celebration of India, and $729 for the Nakano Theatre on February 1 for its annual Black History presentation.

Paul Cohen, People First, requested use of the Garden Rooms on July 22, August 19, September 23, October 21, and November 18 for a total of $560 for a support group for developmentally challenged members.

David Oster, People First, discussed the need to use the Garden Rooms to provide speakers at meetings.

Hope Witkowsky, Torrance Artists Guild, stated Torrance Artists Guild is one of the longest chartered clubs in the City and asked for continued support of the arts. She requested $2,484 for use of the Ken Miller Auditorium for meetings on the second Tuesday of every month.

Heidi Bartlett, Torrance Craftsmen's Guild, described her organization and requested use of the Toyota Meeting Hall on November 15 and 17-19 in the amount of $2,824 as well as the Ken Miller Auditorium, Assembly Room, and Torino Plaza on March 21 for a total of $2,309.

Lynn Robinson, Torrance Rose Float Association, requested a subsidy of $535 for use of the Japanese Garden and Garden Rooms on September 21 for a tea ceremony.

Commissioner Taylor stated all organizations sound worthy and, at his request, Mr. Shakeri provided additional information about Kooshandegan's mission, services, and activities.

Commissioner Muhammed received clarification that all grant funds are for facility rental fees and commented going forward he would like to see more articulation in applications regarding how applicants' programs contribute to development of cultural arts in Torrance.

Ms. Witkowsky discussed the importance of perpetuating artistic talents in Torrance and recommended supporting Charter Clubs in Torrance first.

Commissioner Hsiao suggested working with all the organizations to reduce 30 or 60 minutes of their rental times.

The Commission reviewed each organization and, following discussion, reached a consensus on a recommendation to City Council.

MOTION: Commissioner Muhammed moved to recommend support of grant requests from Arts Council of Torrance, Faith United Methodist Church, People First, Torrance Artists Guild, Torrance Craftsmen's Guild, and Torrance Rose Float Association as requested for a total amount of $11,965, with $1.62 returned to the General Fund. SUBJECT: L.A. OPERA EVENT – SEPTEMBER 28, 2019

Last March, Jennifer LaMarque from Supervisor Hahn's office contacted John Jones about collaborating on a project with their office and the Los Angeles Opera. We were told that every year, the LA Opera sets up equipment for a free, live simulcast of one of their productions in a park or public place in one of the LA County Supervisorial districts. This year is the 4th District's turn!

We suggested both the Wilson Park Amphitheater and Columbia Park as possible sites, and the Opera staff opted for Columbia Park. The actual site will be where we hold the Cherry Blossom Festival, closer to the Madrona side of the park. The date is Saturday, September 28. The Opera staff estimates that several thousand people will attend, based on their other free simulcast performances.

The opera being simulcast will be La Boheme. The actual simulcast starts at 7:30pm and runs to about 10:00pm, with a 20 minute intermission. The public will be invited to find their spots and picnic as of 5:30pm. Staff will work with the Opera to program pre-show entertainment, such as the Torrance Civic Chorale, as well as assist with and support their marketing efforts. We will also invite City and community groups to have a booth or tent at the event to distribute information.

The Opera has a relationship with Smorgasbord, an organization which produces a large food booth event every week in downtown LA. The Opera will contract with them to provide food. No alcohol is being sold.

Please save the date on your calendar for what will be a spectacular event!

Joyce Chan, Farmers' Market Manager

Farmers' Market - June gloom has affected the Farmers' Market in its harvest this year. The colder weather and late rain have slowed or delayed the plentiful harvest we usually in June. Pluots, apricots, and stone fruit have just started to get going. Tomatoes are starting to harvest. Tenerelli Farms will make their appearance in July. Grapes have not yet started to harvest. Our citrus growers have stopped for the season. Still, the market has been very busy on Tuesdays and Saturdays. We are seeing a bit larger revenues to the City than last year.

The market started seeing the usual summer camps come to the market, brightening up the atmosphere with lively chatter and laughter. Our Twist Potato vendor had a line that extended to the other side of the Farmers' Market.

A new rancher, Sonrise Ranch, started at the Tuesday market, selling beef, dog bones, bone broth, bone marrow, hot dogs, chicken, and even clean beef fat to cook with. Rancher Doug is very knowledgeable and will take for days about sustainability and works hard to educate his customers.

The Tuesday Farmers' Market also added Feel Good Salsa, making vegan dips, mole, and her own tortilla chips! We also added a sandwich vendor, making delicious sandwiches on baguettes, including vegetarian and vegan options.

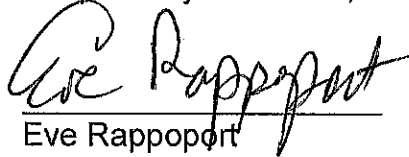

The TCFM's programmatic area enjoyed a cooking demo from Chef Kelly Kim, founder of the recently closed restaurant, Yellow Fever. We also had a visit from the Department of Social Services, signing up people who would qualify for CalFresh/EBT assistance.
