Torrance Mayor Patrick J. Furey Answers #WhyTorrance in 2016 State of the City Address

Torrance, Calif., Sept. 29, 2016 – Mayor Patrick J. Furey delivered his 2016 State of the City Address at the DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel in Torrance. At the luncheon, Torrance CitiCABLE showed an introductory video to complement Mayor Furey’s remarks. The video and the Address focused on the theme of “#WhyTorrance,” with members of the public describing what makes Torrance a great place to live, play, work and do business.

In his third State of the City, Mayor Furey reflected on the things that make Torrance a City that is attractive to residents, business owners and visitors. Among the reasons given were the quality educational system; public safety with a Class 1 rated Torrance Fire Department and the proactive Torrance Police Department; world-class healthcare providers in the City; and projects to improve the City’s infrastructure for the future. Mayor Furey also discussed efforts to continue attracting regional, national and international businesses to Torrance; new restaurant and retail projects throughout the City; the recent formation of the Torrance Auto Dealers Association; a thriving cultural arts scene; and Discover Torrance’s marketing efforts that attract special events and tourism to the City.

Mayor Furey’s State of the City Address will be cablecast daily on Torrance CitiCABLE Channel 3 (Spectrum), Channel 36 (Frontier FiOS), Channel 25.2 KNET over-the-air beginning Thursday, Oct. 6 at 10 a.m., 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. Visit www.TorranceCA.Gov/1928.htm to view the full transcript and to watch the introduction video State of the City Address. The videos and transcript will be available later this evening.
