Set sail with the Torrance Art Museum on the Inaugural South Bay Museum and Gallery Art Crawl! The South Bay of Los Angeles is home to a wide variety of visual art museums and galleries spread over a large region. The crawl is an opportunity for you to explore visual arts in the South Bay. All galleries listed will be open on Saturday, May 3 from 12 – 6pm. The Torrance Art Museum will also host a closing reception on May 3 from 4 – 8pm for “crawlers.” No reservations are necessary.

El Camino College Art Gallery
16007 Crenshaw Blvd., Torrance 90506
310-660-3010 | elcamino.edu

El Camino College Student Show
The best student work in all media produced during 2014.
This spacious gallery is on the ground floor of the Art and Behavioral Sciences Building. Visitors must purchase a $3 parking permit for Lots J and K. The gallery will also be open Sunday, May 4th from 12 – 7pm.

APC Fine Arts & Graphics Gallery
1621 Cabrillo Ave., Torrance 90501
310-328-0366 | apcfinearts.com

Process – The Moment: A series of drawings and paintings by Dina Djabieva, Ron Libbrecht and Kevin Winger where the moment is found in the process. Located in Old Torrance, this is a unique art space that lives inside a print shop and design studio. APC reproduces art for artists as well as displays it. Street parking.

Summer Studios Arts Academy
2161 Lomita Blvd., Lomita 90717
310-325-8801 | summerstudios.net

Photographic & Digital Artists (PADA), a group member’s exhibition; Artists tbd. Summer Studios provides art classes and individual art instruction to kids, teens and adults throughout the year. It’s not only an art school, but also a vibrant community space showcasing visual arts with live performances and readings by poets and writers. Free parking behind the studios or on the street.

Palos Verdes Art Center
5504 West Crestridge Road, Rancho Palos Verdes 90275
310-541-2479 | pvartcenter.org

Annual Student Art Exhibition featuring students from Kindergarten through 12th grade. Please visit their website for more information on two other ticketed events happening May 3. PV Art Center is a non-profit community art gallery and school which has been in existence for 40 years.

The Artists’ Studio Gallery
Promenade on the Peninsula #159, 550 Deep Valley Drive, Rolling Hills Estates, 90274
310-265-2592 | artists-studio-pvac.com

Reflections, featuring paintings by Kathie Reis and Linda Thompson, jewelry by Marilyn Harris. The Artists’ Studio Gallery a program of the Palos Verdes Art Center, features month-long showcase exhibitions of work by 3 artists, alternating with a two-artist group shows and a holiday show. Additionally the specialty small-works room features work from 32 artists throughout the year. Free parking is available.

Torrance Art Museum
3320 Civic Center Drive, Torrance 90503
310-618-6388 | torranceartmuseum.com

PREP SCHOOL Prepper & Survivalist Ideologies and Utopian/Dystopian Visions exhibition and Armed with Fever and Good Health. Youth, beauty and existential crises from the Austrian painting duo, Asgar/Gabriel. TAM is located at the Cultural Arts Center which features studios for visual art and performing arts instruction and two theaters. It is a program of the City of Torrance Cultural Services Division, Community Services Department.

South Bay Contemporary / Zask Gallery
Promenade on the Peninsula #151, 550 Deep Valley Drive, Rolling Hills Estates, 90274
310-429-0973 | southbaycontemporary.com

American Native Contemporary: Art and Poetry by Native American Natives. Artists include Gregg Deal, Yatika Fields, Jaque Frague, Joan Kane, Sheridan MacKnight, Ken Marchionno, Gretchen Sagan and Gail Werner. South Bay Contemporary promotes community arts education by hosting art exhibitions, workshops, artist talks and other events and by collaborating with existing local arts and non-profit organizations. Also open May 4th from 4-6pm for an artist reception and silent auction.

California Museum of Fine Art
1421 Marcelina Ave., Torrance 90501
323-908-8909 | calmuseumfineart@gmail.com