Students and Government Day – May 7, 2019

The City of Torrance announces the 13th annual Students and Government Day, a great opportunity for 8th graders who attend Torrance public and private schools to gain an understanding of local government.

To participate, 8th grade students must neatly write or type a 100 to 150-word essay on the topic: “Communities encourage volunteering as a form of civic engagement. Design a program and explain how it can help make our community a better, safer, friendlier place to live. Describe what tools you would utilize (technology, social media, community meetings, etc.), how you would put your idea in action and why.”

Essays must be submitted to the respective social studies teacher by Tuesday, February 5, 2019.

Winning students must be available to participate on Tuesday, May 7, 2019 for Students and Government Day activities from 1:00 to 8:00pm at Torrance City Hall.

Among those who submit essays, 21 students will be invited to participate in a variety of activities, including job shadowing elected officials or City management for the afternoon. In the evening, the students will open an actual City Council meeting.

Protest, noun

Curated by Max Presneill

Protest, noun presents a small group of artists based in Los Angeles who share an urgent political drive through their practice that engages with our moment of 'interesting times' as the ancient Chinese curse would have it. This social and political critique is conducted via a pronounced materiality whereby objecthood announces its structural relationship to meaning and content.Carolina Caycedo, Forrest Kirk, Nery Gabriel Lemus, Narsiso Martinez, Patrick Martinez, Jaime Scholnick
